

Universität Bremen

Transnational & Area Studies- Colloquium Winter Semester 2019/20

The Transnational & Area Studies-Colloquium is a new venue for interdisciplinary debate on pertinent questions of transnational scope and area studies relevance. Scholars and students meet on a monthly basis to discover new approaches and joint research interests. The colloquium is open to the interested public.

Subscribe to the mailing list for regular updates and pre-circulated readings:

<https://mailman.zfn.uni-bremen.de/cgi-bin/mailman/listinfo/tas-colloquium>

Time: Mondays 14-16h Venue: Unicom, Mary-Somerville-Str. 7, InIIS, room 7.2210

- | | |
|-------------|---|
| October 28 | Methodological discussion
The Art of Comparison
Introduction by Klaus Schlichte (InIIS) |
| November 25 | Guest lecture
Critical Theory in Times of Brexit and Trump
Beate Jahn (University of Sussex) |
| December 16 | Paper discussion
The Transnational Formation of a Healthy Nation: Travelling Reformers in Uruguay (1903-1933)
Teresa Huhle (CRC 1342) |
| January 27 | Paper discussion
New Directions in Latin American Film History: The Intellectual Network of the Brazilian Film Critic Salles Gomes
Ricardo Borrmann (History Department) |

Coordinators: Delia González de Reufels (History Department), Klaus Schlichte (InIIS), Teresa Huhle (CRC 1342), Alex Veit (InIIS). Contact: veit@uni-bremen.de